

London Air Quality Network Conference – 25th June 2019

Lecture theatre B5, Franklin Wilkins Building, Waterloo Campus, King's College London

Tea and coffee will be served from 9:15 in the first-floor restaurant

9.50 – 10.00 Welcome and introduction.
Frank Kelly, King's College London.

A year in air pollution – chaired by Elliott Treharne, Greater London Authority

10:00 – 10:30 London's air 2018
Timothy Baker, King's College London

10:30 – 11:00 Modelling London's air
David Dajnak, King's College London

11:00 – 11:30 TEA AND COFFEE

Air pollution in transport micro-environments – chaired by Ben Barratt, King's College London

11:30 – 12:00 PM in the London Underground
David Green, King's College London

12:00 – 12:30 Air pollution in mainline railway stations
Anna Font, King's College London

12:30 – 13:00 DeMIST – measuring professional driver exposure
Ian Mudway, King's College London

13:00 – 14:00 LUNCH

Communicating air pollution information - old and new media chaired by Gary Fuller, King's College London

14:00 – 14:30 Developing approaches to engage people in air pollution: what works and what doesn't?
Rosie Riley, Imperial College London

14:30 – 15:00 The Canary app - protecting outdoor workers
Andrew Grieve, King's College London

15:00 – 15:30 The role of the media in staging air pollution in London
Anneleen Kenis, Research Foundation - Flanders

International guest speaker and discussion chaired by Frank Kelly, King's College London

15:30 – 16:00 Applications of the difference-in-differences approach to study the health effects of air pollution.
Professor Francesco Forastiere, Regional Health Service, Lazio Epidemiology, King's College London

16:00 – 16:45 Discussion
16:45 – 18:00 Drinks reception

The seminar will take place in the Franklin Wilkins Building, 150 Stamford Street, London, SE1 9NH.

The Franklin Wilkins Building is shown in green (A) on the map below. Registration will be on the ground floor and tea and lunch will be served in the first floor cafe. The seminar itself will take place in lecture theatre B5 on the ground floor.

CPD certificates for this event are available on request.